Tabernacles 2006 in Reading, PA

Feast of Tabernacles celebrations were held this past Oct. 13-15, 2006 in Reading, PA, USA. This conference really was Spirit led with virtually no preset agenda. This led to a conference that flowed through many connected themes naturally. The result was people that left having felt filled with the spirit, anointed by His word and blessings, and prepared for changes that Father is working out in the Earth and its peoples. We trust that you too will be blessed as you live this conference through these recordings.

The Anointing Oils

During a session on the Saturday of the conference, Stephen Jones and Thom Mills were led to offer an anointing to the people at the conference in which Stephen anointed with a Priestly anointing with Frankincense and Thom anointed with a Kingly anointing with Red Root Oil. In the recording of this event (The Anointing), we suggest that you take this opportunity to anoint your self and those with you as you are led to. Therefore, we are making this Red Root and Frankincense oils available to you if you wish to purchase them. Please note that Stephen and Thom were acting in obedience and that these oils do have certain chemical properties. Having said that, these specific oils are not required from a legalistic point of view, but rather it is the spirit behind the anointing that is truly important.

If you wish to purchase these, oils, they are $26 US for each 1/4 oz bottle and will be included with your recordings order. Please circle either bottle, or both, that you wish to order.
